Considering the above discussions, it is relevant to note that where the temporary Barangay Treasurer have discharged and performed the powers, duties and responsibilities pertaining to the office, he is entitled to receive honorarium and other allowances/remuneration from the first day he assumed as BT, including those expenses incurred which are incidental in the performance of his function, such as those incurred during the Budget Seminar in Sept. 2008, provided that he was authorized to attend said seminar on official business and not of his own personal interest. (DILG Opinion No. 17, s. 2009) He may also be entitled to leave benefits provided he complied with the requisites provided under Civil Service Commission (CSC) and Department of Budget and Management (DBM) Joint Circular No. 1, s. 2004.

On your third query, we are of the view that Mr. Nievarez can withdraw his honorarium and any emoluments due him, provided he complies with the necessary requisites and procedures in the disbursement of funds.

We hope we have enlightened you on the matter.

Very truly yours,

BLANDINO M. MACEDA, CESO III
Regional Director
