DILG Region V prepares LGUs vs disasters

By Juvy Andrew Hedia

Bicol region experienced various types of natural disasters from strongest typhoons, earthquakes and volcanic eruptions. Flooding and erosion caused by strong typhoons have been aggravated by the lava flow and other volcanic debris. All these disasters cause ravaging damages to property and loss of lives. Economy is greatly affected in this region while local government units (LGUs) scramble to prioritize the needs of their people.

Abnormal volcanic activities of Mayon Volcano and Mt. Bulusan, earthquake in Masbate and very destructive typhoons Quinta, Rolly and Ulysses just occurred from October to November 2020. All these also result to aggravate the present COVID19 mitigation and response of LGUs.

The Department immediately responded and activated the early preparedness actions for our LGUs for them to be guided of their respective roles and functions based on Operation Listo Protocols. Further, pertinent information on the immediate effects of the said calamities to our communities were gathered through our field officers.

Motivated with the mandate and guidance from our Regional Director Atty. Anthony C.

DILG RV connects to Central Office via VidyoRoom AVS Project

By Eden S. Lanuza

Under the MITHI approved ISSP funded 2020 is an Audio Visual System Project, which aims to enhance and support the communication of the DILG Central Office and Regional/Field Offices. The main system component of the AVS was already installed at the Central Office by the system provider, EGM Systems Global Technologies, Inc.

The project implementation plan includes the deployment of the AVS equipment to all DILG regional offices consisting of a set of Vidyo Room HD2 Bundle w/ Logitech PTZ Camera, speakerphone and content sharing adapter.

DILG Region V, through the Regional Information and Communications Unit (RICTU), facilitated the online installation and user’s training for the audio visual system project in coordination with DILG-Information Systems Technology Management Service (ISTMS) and EGM Systems Global Technologies, Inc.

The basic user-end training on how to administer and use the Audio Visual System and VidyoRoom using the user interface (UI) was conducted on September 28, 2020 at DILG Regional Office No. V, participated in by selected personnel namely, ITO1 Eden S. Lanuza, Network Administrator Jeffrey Jay D. Epino, LGOO II Juvy Andrew C. Hedia and Mr. Wilfredo A. De Mesa, Jr.

The technical support group of the system provider, headed by Mr. Eddilmar Pamintuan Jr., managed the VidyoRoom HD2 user’s training, hands-on demonstration and discussion on the basic troubleshooting.

The presence of these ICT resources contributes a lot in enhancing the capability of the regional offices in the implementation of the programs and projects through video conferencing services especially in the new normal conditions.

Juvy Andrew C. Hedia and Wilfredo De Mesa Jr. attended the online training on Audio Visual System and VidyoRoom hardwares to easily link communication between DILG central and regional offices.

Race for the vaccine

By Juvy Andrew C. Hedia

As of 31 December 2020, the Philippines has already a total of 474,064 persons infected with COVID19 and recorded 9,244 deaths per report of DOH. In Bicol alone there are already 3,652 cases with 484 active cases and 151 deaths. On the brighter side however, there are already 439,796 persons who have recovered nationwide, bringing the active cases to 25,024 only.

Though the numbers are at a low hike, health regulators presumed that infection rate will plummet due to the holiday activities. Persons in vacation will celebrate the Christmas and New Year holidays with their family and friends and even with neighbors in communities. With the general community quarantine in place, persons are allowed to celebrate with limitations.

However we want to end this pandemic as soon as possible, science tells us that we will go through years of process until a large portion of the population of an area is immune to COVID 19. This pertains to community immunity or herd immunity. Although the immunity may be brought by the inoculation of COVID19 vaccine, infection may still fluctuate although at a minimum level through the years.

The inoculation of COVID19 may have brought with it doubts as to its efficacy and side effects. Several COVID19 vaccines have been introduced in the world but access to these most sought vaccines are slim because 3.9 billion out of 9.6 billion doses have already been reserved to high income countries according to a global tracker.

The national government has already allocated P72.5 billion to inoculate around 24 million Filipinos. Local government units have already allotted budget for the procurement of the vaccine. However, prior to negotiation with suppliers and procurement of vaccines, LGUs need coordination from DOH and the designated Vaccine Czar, Secretary Carlito Galvez Jr for possible assistance in accessing the provision of vaccines. LGUs intending to procure vaccines under authorized emergency use are advised to procure not more than fifty percent (50%) of their vaccine requirements. Vaccine czar Carlito Galvez Jr. said that they saw the urgency and that the country is “not in the tail-end” in acquiring the vaccine.

Philippine health regulators still mandatorily impose wearing of face mask, social distancing, restrictive travels and other minimum health standards. This has been seen as an effective measure to lessen infection however this is restrictive to economic growth. That’s why early plans for the inoculation of majority of the Filipinos are being pushed by health authorities to revitalize economic activity in the country.

Cooperation of the public is most sought in this battle against COVID19 pandemic. This is the time people should update themselves of the most reliable information on the plans of the government to eradicate COVID19 through inoculation of the vaccine to a large number of citizens in the country.

DILG leads the Dagyaw - virtual regional townhall meetings

By Juvy Andrew C. Hedia

DILG 5 Regional Director Atty. Anthony C. Nuyda delivered his opening remarks during the 2nd episode of Dagyaw.

Technical staff composed of PDMU and IT personnel assisted during the Dagyaw.

The Dagyaw: Regional Townhall Meetings or Dagyaw in short is one of the programs of the DILG, DBM and PIA implemented to encourage participation of the citizen in governance. The government opens a safe space for national government agencies and all participating citizens including civil society organizations and other non-government organizations to discuss issues affecting the lives of the citizens and the corresponding response of the government. Its main goal is to promote citizen participation in governance as well as to measure the efficacy of such responses.

The program kicked off last 2019 and was held in a large venue attended by numerous CSOs, NGOs and other citizens. This 2020, due to mass gathering restrictions, the Dagyaw were held online via zoom, facebook live and radio live broadcast. It was conducted in two episodes, first is Usapang Edukasyon: Mga hamon at pagbangon sa panahon ng pandemya and Mag-AGRI tayo! Para sa sapat na pagkain at hanapbuhay held on 21 October 2020 and 9 December, respectively. The first episode was attended by 1,122 online viewers and other participants. Resource speakers from the education sector Francis B. Bulalacao Jr., CLMD Chief, DepEd Region 5 and Dr. Charlito P. Cadag, CSPC President, shared their implementation strategies in coping with the blended learning regulations imposed by CHED and DepEd while ensuring quality, accessible, relevant and liberating basic education accessible to all.

Tabaco City Mayor Cielo Krisel L. Luistro also shared her strategies by allocating additional budget for students' learning and initiated partnerships with other sectors to improve internet connection, facilitate distribution of modules and expand educational instructions or lessons. Ms. Lorina Aquino of The Asia Foundation discussed their program ABC+ which focuses assistance not to students only but to the teachers as well.

As a response to the issue on food and job security during this pandemic the second episode of Dagyaw was timely as it tackles agriculture sector issues on food and work during this trying times. The second episode of Dagyaw reached about 683 online participants and was held again through zoom, facebook live and radio live broadcast reaching.

In his presentation, DTI 5 OIC-RD Rodrigo M. Aguilar pointed out that the agribusiness concerning food processing is the top priority sector of the department, although there are other priority industries. DTI provides programs and assistance to these sectors to ensure food security. Also, Field Operations Division Chief Dr. Mary Grace Rodriguez representing the Department of Agriculture (DA) started her her presentation by introducing the “Plant, Plant, Plant Program” or “Ahon Lahat, Pagkain Sapat (ALPAS) Kontra COVID-19” which aims to increase national agri-fishery output amidst the threat of Covid-19 pandemic and ultimately would benefit farmers, fishers and consumers.

Ms. Aurora Chavez De Guzman, Chairperson of Caucus of Development NGO National facilitated the two episodes of Dagyaw.

Another resource person, Ms. Cheryl O. Rebeta, Provincial Agriculturist of Albay, who then briefly introduced the goals of the Provincial Government giving emphasis on their number one priority which is to increase agricultural productivity. One of their key strategies is to improve provincial agricultural facilities to better provide service to the farmers in the province, create sustainable jobs and cater low priced products to consumers as well.

Discussion on the challenges brought by COVID-19 to the Agri-Food Sector such as: (1) Access to input supplies and market has been very challenging – disruption of supply chain; (2) Low prices of commodities; and (3) Getting work especially by the landless agricultural workers, were discussed by Ms. Caroline Manguiat-Ubalde of the Lingap Para Sa Kalusugan Ng Sambayanan

(LIKAS).

To close the second episode of Dagyaw Mr. Nicolas Beda A. Priela of Coalition for Bicol Development (CBD) mentioned that while there are a lot of programs being implemented, there is still no definitive direction to where the Region is headed in so far as the agriculture and industry sector is concerned. He also said that these projects are generating small results and have not yet reached the level where it affects a critical mass of people or influence a bigger sector especially in Luzon. This is his challenge to the various agencies in the agriculture and industry sector.

This 2020’s Dagyaw: Virtual Regional Townhall Meetings is a successful event showcasing the authentic issues affecting the citizens in this time of pandemic. The citizens became more participative as they provide their insights through their reactions and comments regarding implementation of government policies. Objectives of the program were met despite the challenges of the pandemic.

LEGAL UPDATES

Authority of Mayors to Solemnize Marriages

By: Atty. Magdalena A. Borbe

The heart has reasons of its own which reason does not know. (Chua-Qua vs. Clave, G.R. No. L-49549, August 30, 1990) and the freedom to marry has long been recognized as one of the vital personal rights essential to the orderly pursuit of happiness by free men. (Loving vs. Virginia, United States Supreme Court). Love is useless unless it is shared with another. Indeed, no man is an island, the cruellest act of a partner in marriage is to say “I could not have cared less.” This is so because an ungiven self is an unfulfilled self. The egoist has nothing but himself. In the natural order, it is sexual intimacy which brings spouses wholeness and oneness. Sexual intimacy is a gift and a participation in the mystery of creation. It is a function which enlivens the hope of procreation and ensures the continuation of family relations. (Chi Ming Tsoi vs. Court of Appeals and Gina Lao- Tsoi, GR No. 119190, 16 January 1997). From sweet and “kilig” “hugot” quotes from the Supreme Court concerning marriages to punishment to persons who solemnize marriages without any authority, this article is intended to settle the score and to clear ambiguities as regards to specific persons who can solemnize marriages under the Philippine Jurisdiction.

The Family Code (FC) of the Philippines defines marriage as a Marriage is a special contract of permanent union between a man and a woman entered into in accordance with law for the establishment of conjugal and family life. It is the foundation of the family and an inviolable social institution whose nature, consequences, and incidents are governed by law and not subject to stipulation, except that marriage settlements may fix the property relations during the marriage within the limits provided by this Code. The Family Code further provides that Marriages may be solemnize by:

1. Any incumbent member of the judiciary within the court’s jurisdiction;
2. Any priest, rabbi, imam, or minister of any church or religious sect duly authorized by his church or religious sect and registered with the civil registrar general, acting within the limits of the written authority granted by his church or religious sect and provided that at least one of the contracting parties belongs to the solemnizing officer’s church or religious sect;
3. Any ship captain or airplane chief only in the case mentioned in Article 31;
4. Any military commander of a unit to which a chaplain is assigned, in the absence of the latter, during a military operation, likewise only in the cases mentioned in Article 32;
5. Any consul-general, consul or vice-consul in the case provided in Article 10.

Now, the old-century question comes to take place. If Article 7 of the FC provides Specific Individuals who can solemnize marriages, why do we still experience some couples being solemnized by City and Municipal Mayors? While in truth and in fact, they are not included in the Article 7 of the FC that has authority to solemnize marriages.

Does this mean that Municipal and City Mayors habitually solemnize illegal marriages?

Justice Alicia V. Sempio-Diy, a Family Law expert and one of the main Author of the Family Code has an answer to this. According to Justice Sempio-Diy, The Family Code removed the authority of the Mayors to solemnize marriages, since experience has show that most violations of the law on marriage were committed by these politicians in their desire to please their constituents. Several bills were later filed in Congress to restore the authority to mayors, but the Civil Code Revision Committee had always opposed those bills, and none of them became a law. However, in the Local Government Code (“LGC”), such authority was “smuggled” in Section 444 as to municipal mayors and Section 455 as to City Mayors.

It is Crystal Clear that even though the FC did not explicitly grant mayors authority to solemnize marriages, Sections 444 and:

455 of the LGC has however granted powers to Mayors to solemnize marriages. Section 444 of the LGC Provides that SECTION. 444. The Chief Executive: Powers, Duties, Functions and Compensation. - (a) The municipal mayor, as the chief executive of the municipal government, shall exercise such powers and perform such duties and functions as provided by this Code and other laws.

XXX xxx XXX xxx XXX xxx XXX

(xviii) Solemnize marriages, any provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding; (Emphasis Supplied)

XXX xxx XXX xxx XXX xxx XXX

While section 455 of the LGC provides:

SECTION. 455. Chief Executive; Powers, Duties and Compensation. -(a) The city mayor, as chief executive of the city government, shall exercise such powers and perform such duties and functions as provided by this Code and other laws.

XXX xxx XXX xxx XXX xxx XXX

(xviii) Solemnize marriages, any provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding; (Emphasis Supplied)

XXX xxx XXX xxx XXX xxx XXX

In essence, Mayors have again the authority to solemnize marriages. How about a Vice-Mayor who assume the Role of an Acting Mayor? Does the Vice Mayor-now the Acting Mayor, has the authority to solemnize marriages? The Supreme Court in the Case of Laxamana v. Baltazar, 92 Phil., 32, answered in the affirmative. The vice mayor of a municipality acting as Acting Mayor has the authority to solemnize marriages, because if the vice mayor assumes the powers and duties of the office of the mayor, when proper, it is immaterial whether it is because the latter is the Acting Mayor or merely Acting as mayor, for in both instances, he discharges all the duties and wields the powers appurtenant to said office.

Another situation, in the event that the Mayor or the Vice-Mayor acting as Mayor were incapacitated or not available on the day of the scheduled solemnization, and they instructed and authorized the City Administrator/Municipal Administrator/Secretary to solemnize marriages, can the latter do so? The answer would be in the negative. Only those under Article 7 of the FC, Sections 444 and 455 of the LGC, and the Vice Mayor acting as Mayor may solemnize marriages. Individuals who solemnize marriages without authority to do so may be held criminally liable for Performance of Illegal Marriage Ceremony under Art. 352 of the Revised Penal Code without prejudice to civil and administrative liabilities.

Marital union is a two-way process. An expressive interest in each other's feelings at a time it is needed by the other can go a long way in deepening the marital relationship. Marriage is definitely not for children but for two consenting adults who view the relationship with love amor gignit amorem, respect, sacrifice and a continuing commitment to compromise, conscious of its value as a sublime social institution." (Chi Ming Tsoi vs. Court of Appeals and Gina Lao- Tsoi, GR No. 119190, 16 January 1997) Love happens to everyone. It is dubbed to be boundless as it goes beyond the expectations people tagged with it. People love in order to be secure that one will share his/her life with another and that he/she will not die alone. Individuals who are in love had the power to let love grow or let love die – it is a choice one had to face when love is not the love he/she expected. (Padilla-Rumbaua v. Rumbaua, G.R. No. 166738).

Indeed, Marriage, as an inviolable social institution, is the foundation of the family and shall be protected by the State . This is mandated by no-less than the Constitution for the Filipino Family is the foundation of the nation and the State has the paramount obligation to strengthen the solidarity of the Filipino Family and actively promote its total development.
